

Dear colleagues,

due to an unfortunate incident, the application files for travel awards from BLS and IAL have been lost. I sincerely apologize for this. We will have to ask you to please submit as soon as possible but at latest on Monday, June 20 to Peter Crittenden (email: Peter.Crittenden@nottingham.ac.uk). The decision will be made within a week, latest by June 27 and applicants informed during that week. The original call for applications for travel awards is below.

Again – please accept my apologies and thanks to Peter for volunteering to solve this issue.

Yours sincerely,

Thorsten Lumbsch

IAL President

IAL Travel grants for attending IAL8 in Helsinki

The IAL has made available €5,000 to help its student members attend IAL8. We hope to be able to make about 10-12 awards in the region of €360-€550. Applicants must be IAL members when the application is submitted.

To apply please provide the following: name, institution address, supervisor, email address, whether you intend to contribute to an IAL8 session (and if so, the title and authorship of the contribution, and whether it will be a talk or a poster), your itinerary and approximate cost.

Please note that applications for the IAL awards will be considered together with those for the BLS awards and applicants will not be considered for both. If you are a member of the BLS, please state this in the application.

Awards will be made available to successful applicants either at the meeting or after the meeting by bank transfer.

BLS Travel grants for attending IAL8 in Helsinki

The BLS has made available £10,000 to help its members attend IAL8. We envisage making 25-30 awards in the region of £300-£460 each. Applicants must be BLS members when the application is submitted.

To apply please provide the following: name, institution address, supervisor (if a student or a post-doc), email address, whether you intend to contribute to an IAL8 session (and if so, the title and authorship of the contribution, and whether it will be a talk or a poster), your itinerary and approximate cost.

Please note that applications for the BLS awards will be considered together with those for the IAL awards (which are for students only) and that applicants will not be considered for both. If you are a student and you are a member of the IAL, please state this in the application.

Awards will be made available to successful applicants either at the meeting (in Euro) or after the meeting by bank transfer.
